MORENO RESTREPO, LAURA CAROLINA :

The National Visa Center (NVC) completed processing your immigrant visa application and scheduled your visa interview at the U.S. Embassy/Consulate General, for processing. Appointment information is located at the bottom of this email. Only family members listed below in the Additional Applicant's section who are intending to immigrate at this time must appear at the Embassy/Consulate General on the appointment date.

Important Information:

You submitted forms and supporting documents to the NVC in electronic form. You must bring the original forms and documents to your interview for review by the consular officer.

Please read and follow all Interview Preparation Instructions located on the Department of State's web site at: <https://nvc.state.gov/prep>.

Important information regarding the required medical appointment is also listed on this site. Failure to follow all instructions provided on this site may result in the refusal of your immigrant visa at the initial interview.

You should present this letter upon arrival at the Embassy/Consulate General.

What To Do if You Cannot Keep the Appointment:

To determine the proper procedure for rescheduling your interview appointment, please go to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate interview preparation instructions, select your interview location from the list and follow the instructions listed under "Contact Information" on the right.

Reminders:

- Read and follow all interview instructions located at <https://nvc.state.gov/prep>.
- Bring this letter to your medical examination for the panel physician to review.
- Your sponsors (petitioner, household members, and joint sponsors), may be required to provide updated or additional information for you to present at your interview, such as:
  - Other Income
  - Assets
  - Proof of current employment
- You submitted documentation to the National Visa Center through the Consular Electronic Application Center (CEAC). You can continue to upload documents to CEAC up until the date of your visa interview. You must present all original documents at the time of interview.

- If a sponsor filed an I-864 (Affidavit of Support) AND provided the NVC with proof of an IRS Federal Income Tax Extension in lieu of a Federal Income Tax Return, you must upload this to CEAC or bring the sponsor's most recent Federal Income Tax Return to the visa interview.
- Failure to present all necessary original documents to the Consular Officer may result in the refusal of your immigrant visa at the initial interview.

Questions:

The National Visa Center has completed its processing of this case and any further inquiries should be addressed to the U.S. Embassy, Consulate General, or Diplomatic Mission listed below. When communicating with the Embassy/Consulate General, always refer to your name and case number exactly as they appear.
